

Training Director's Roles and Responsibilities (Director Position)

GENERAL

Each Director is responsible for exercising their power with competence and diligence in what they reasonably believe to be in the best interest of the Club with loyalty, honesty and good faith (fiduciary duty). Directors ensure that all duties of their position are performed to the satisfaction of the Club as a whole, either alone, through delegation, or in collaboration with other Directors and their assistants.

Directors are required to attend all meetings of the Board of Directors and become as fully informed as possible regarding all aspects of the Club, including any issues that affect the Club. Directors must refrain from placing themselves in a situation where their duty as a director conflicts with their personal interest or with their duty to others and must abide by the terms of the Club Letters Patent, By-Laws, Rules and Regulations.

The main roles and responsibilities of a Training Director are to provide classes at the Foundation 1 and 2 (beginner), Intermediate, Starters, Advanced and Masters level using Agility Association of Canada (AAC) approved equipment, and in accordance with generally practiced standards for the safety and well-being of both the handlers and the dogs.
